

Embracing the Wild: Gardening with Native Plants

Exercise A - Martelli

Site Description:

Heavy clay soil with lawn.

House is to the south and shades one side of the yard.

Yard has one western redcedar tree as well as a yew tree. There are a few Douglas-fir on the north boundary.

50% of the yard is shady

25% is partial sun/shade

25% is sunny

The yard is 35' x 70'

Photo of site:

Plant options:

1. Sword fern
2. Redflowering currant
3. Thimbleberry
4. Salmonberry
5. Salal
6. Fawn lily
7. Trillium
8. Vanilla leaf
9. Ocean spray
10. Hairy honeysuckle
11. Tall Oregon-grape
12. Fuchsia flowered gooseberry
13. Meadowrue
14. Others of your choosing

Workshops

Proudly supported by the

---

Fostering understanding and appreciation of nature through direct experience.

Swan Lake Christmas Hill Nature Sanctuary
3873 Swan Lake Road, Victoria, BC V8X 3W1

www.swanlake.bc.ca | @SwanLake Nature | Facebook | Twitter | Instagram
250-479-0211 | Charity # 11920 7157 RR0001