

Embracing the Wild: Gardening with Native Plants

Exercise B – 821 Ralph

Site Description

Soil conditions variable because it is fill – pockets of clay, cobbles, gravel which is hard packed. Has been overtopped by woodchips for 3 months.

Mostly full sun exposure. The only shade provided is from a 6' high fence to the south.

The yard is 40' x 50'

Photo of site:

Plant options:

1. Woolly sunflower
2. Tall Oregon grape
3. Pearly everlasting
4. Knickknick
5. Canada goldenrod
6. Douglas aster
7. Orange honeysuckle
8. Evergreen huckleberry
9. Black Hawthorn
10. Pacific crab apple
11. Great Camas
12. Coast Penstemon
13. Yarrow
14. Red-flowering currant
15. Saskatoon
16. Garry Oak

Workshops

Proudly supported by the

Fostering understanding and appreciation of nature through direct experience.

Swan Lake Christmas Hill Nature Sanctuary
3873 Swan Lake Road, Victoria, BC V8X 3W1

www.swanlake.bc.ca | @SwanLake Nature | Facebook | Twitter | Instagram
250-479-0211 | Charity # 11920 7157 RR0001

Fostering understanding and appreciation of nature through direct experience.

Swan Lake Christmas Hill Nature Sanctuary
3873 Swan Lake Road, Victoria, BC V8X 3W1

www.swanlake.bc.ca | @SwanLake Nature | Facebook | Twitter | Instagram
250-479-0211 | Charity # 11920 7157 RR0001